(4) Contract labour/Contract appointments

(i) The Council noted that the Draft Bill to amend Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970 would be finalised by the Union Ministry of Labour in consultation with the Ministry of Law & Justice for taking further necessary action.

(ii) An Inter-Ministerial Standing Committee would be established for the present to clear expeditiously the amendments to be proposed by the State Governments in various labour laws.

(5) Implementation Report

The I nter-State Council took note that out of 247 recommendations of Sarkaria Commission, it had taken a decision on 230 recommendations upto the seventh meeting. Of these, 170 had been implemented, 7 were at various stages of implementation and 53 had not been found acceptable by the Council and the Administrative Ministries/Departments.

(6) Good Governance

A Sub-committee of the Council would be appointed to further deliberate on the subject of Good Governance and come out with a blue print on the subject to be discussed in the next meeting of the Council.

(d) The Inter-State Council is a recommendatory body. The Government of India has accepted the recommendation of the Inter-State Council that a cautious approach should be adopted by the Union Government before giving directions under Articles 256 and 257 and application of Article 365 of the Constitution. The inter-State Council Secretariat has sent all the other recommendations to the concerned Ministries/Departments for follow up action. This is monitored by the Inter-State Council Secretariat on a continuous basis.
